REINCARNATION

BY

DOREAL

(Part Four)

Jesus turned to his disciples and said, "Neither did this man sin nor his parents but he was born blind so the works of God could be made manifest," which shows us also another law that many of us have missed. We do not realize that every person that Jesus healed was healed because he had earned the right to be healed and many of them, such as this man who had been born blind in the past incarnation perhaps had been highly advanced and knowing that Jesus was coming and the things he was going to do, had actually passed through transition of his own free will and incarnated in a blind body, showed himself to people for a period of thirty years so he could carry out his part in the plan. Remember how the High Priest in the Council called him before them after he was healed and threatened to drive out his parents, etc., if he did not deny Jesus. That the man was playing his part was shown by the answer he gave them. They wanted him to say that this man that healed you is the Son of God. Did he tell you that he is the Son of God? and the man answered, "Who he is or what, I know not but this

I know, whereas before I was blind, now I see."

We have to realize this, that incarnation and reincarnation is not a matter of one or two or three or four incarnations in eternity but that man lives life after life after life in a continuous stream until he meets and overcomes life and the conditions of life. I merely gave this to refresh some of your minds concerning reincarnation.

Now let us get down to some of the more technical and serious aspects of reincarnation. It is one of the goals of every metaphysical or occult student to try to recover the memories of the lives that they have lived in the past. It is possible to do so. It is also possible to go back into the past and to actually relive entire lives that we have lived in the past.

It is a curious thing to some people that sometimes when I am talking on certain subjects, perhaps I am talking about Atlantis, or I am talking about something that happened way back in the dawn of creation, and perhaps in this life, this particular incarnation I have neither heard nor seen or read anything concerning some particular point that I want to bring out. It very often happens that when I desire to bring out some knowledge which is not a part of this particular brain and body, when I have held myself in a subconscious state in talking, I will call upon a memory that I have imprinted in some other life. Those memories are all there written indelibly in the Akashic records so we can bring forth everything which is in the past. Many people have noticed that when I have talked about something in the far past, when I would speak for a moment, my face would change. That is because I passed through for a moment that would be called the time continuum and would be actually conscious in the past.

We all have a tremendous lot of varied memories, even in this brain and in this mind and it is only when necessity arises that we reach back and dip into them. Sometimes we surprise ourselves and bring out things we do not even know we knew. There is an unlimited number of things that we have experienced in our past lives that are accessible but until the necessity arises and until we know how to dip back into past memories and experiences we cannot bring them into manifestation in the present time.

I have found it to be very true that it is impossible in one life-time for any person to gain all the knowledge there is to know about everything. It is not impossible in two or three or four thousand life-times and we have all lived tens of thousands of lives in the past. Civilization is far older than we are led to believe. The dawn of recorded history only goes back about five thousand years but after all, that is only the low point in the last wave of consciousness. Time-after-time and wave after-wave civilizations have risen and fallen. On this earth, knowledge, greater than anything we have today was known to man. In Ancient Times, before recorded history began, all the things we think so wonderful today were child's toys compared with the knowledge man once had and will again have. In age after age man rose to a zenith of civilization and destroyed himself because he had not grown in consciousness, in spirituality in accordance with material development. That is one reason man is on the verge today of destroying himself because he is not spiritually capable of handling the forces he can create in this last wave of civilization. In this new Age men must bring about the blending and balancing of the material and spiritual being. It must be brought about and will be brought about.

In speaking of going back into past time, there are a certain number of techniques that can be given concerning the going back in past time. It is not a matter of just, shall we say, doing a thing in a certain way or thinking a thing in a certain way. It is an attunement or harmonizing with certain vibratory forces that the essence of consciousness is attuned with Cosmic Consciousness or Divine Oneness.

The red light is more closely related to the fifth dimension or time dimension than any other color or radiation, and in the red light you are able and in so short a time?" "When I have anything to do, I go and do it," was the reply.

SHAMBALLA ASHRAMA NEWS LETTER

A MESSAGE OF TRUTH AND NEWS
FROM THE SPIRITUAL HEADQUARTERS
OF THE B.W.T.

Dear Students and Friends:

Springtime is bursting out all over the Rockies, breaking the grip of a severe Winter. Flowers and grass have broken through the ground and the tulips have two-inch sprouts. Shamballans are starting clean-up programs around their homes, getting the Season's accumulation hauled away.

A project has started at the Fire Department to build shelving for tools and equipment as well as a work bench for servicing the Fire trucks, tractor and other trucks and snow plowing equipment. The tractor and dump truck are being readied for filling mud holes that have accumulated through the Winter, as well as for the Spring rains.

There is much new interest being shown everywhere, as we move onward toward the common goal of Illuminating the inner man with knowledge of his purpose in life; his reason for being and his status in the Divine Plan. The many new members of the Brotherhood are witness of the growing interest in the Laws of the Spiritual and the attaining of the Cosmic status, the Christ Consciousness.

Visitors from all parts of the Country have indicated their intentions to visit the Brotherhood and the Community this year. We look forward to many new friendships, with our fellow students in Truth, as well as renewing old ones. Brotherhood office hours are from 10:00 A.M. through 4:00 P.M. For those that plan to drive, we have a mimeographed map showing the local area.

Easter Services were well attended with the Temple seating capacity taxed, almost to its limit. Dr. Tully conducted a very inspiring Service and Baptismal, dedicating each individual to Service in the Christ Consciousness.

OCCULT SYMBOLS UNVEILED

Dr. Doreal, feeling the need for a clear exposition of the Occult Symbols which the student often meets in his study of Truth, has prepared a very informative book on Symbolology. He gives the Occult Symbols in charts and diagrams and explains them in a simple and understandable manner.

IN DIVINE FAITH

Somewhere there is a power

Responds to every good---

Somehow there is a heartbeat

In the soul of solitude.

Somewhere there is a someone

May share your fondest dream

So clouds are cleft asunder

For blended blessing's beam---

Somewhere there is a solace

Too pure for any snare:

Somehow there is an answer

For wholesome sincere prayer.

to see more clearly the changes that might take place than in any other light. Time moves in a great spiral. We are never separated from the past by any distance of time. We are only separated from past time by the octave of vibration in and on which our present state of consciousness is manifesting. To go back in time is to change the rate of vibration of the ego or consciousness so that, as it were, it reaches back into the past. Very often when one does that they are able to bring the past into manifestation through a channel in the fifth dimension or time dimension which is held open for the vibratory forces which will cause our features and body to sometimes change until it vibrates in the same rhythm as that of our past life and so that they look as they did in the past.
